OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONER OF LABOUR IN MYSORE, MYSORE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE BUILDINGS, KEMPEGOWDA ROAD, BANGALORE.

Notification No. A. 56—43-44, dated 9th June 1944.

An Employment Exchange has been started as an adjunct to the Department of Labour in the Chamber of Commerce Buildings, Kempegowda Road, Bangalore City. Its primary concern at present will be to find out sources of employment for labour thrown out of work temporarily as a result of the shut down in the Shivasamudram Power Station and the consequent stoppage of power supply to industrial concerns in the State.

Such of those who can offer employment to any considerable number of workers so thrown out are requested to write to or call at the office of the undersigned and furnish particulars, such as the work and wages they can give, number of people required by them, duration for which the employment will be made, etc.

It is also requested that such of the employers who wish that their unemployed labour should be found temporary employment for a specified period of time may also write to the undersigned or call at his office giving particulars about the nature of employment of the unemployed workers, the wages they were getting, the minimum remuneration they may want, the place or places in which they want employment, etc.

Workers temporarily unemployed may also directly apply to the Labour Exchange giving necessary particulars.
